

H.Res. 515 - Congratulating the Oregon State University Beavers baseball team for winning the 2007 National Collegiate Athletic Association Division I College World Series

Floor Situation

H.Res. 515 is being considered on the floor under suspension of the rules and will require a two-thirds majority vote for passage. This legislation was introduced by Rep. Darlene Hooley (D-OR) on June 25, 2007. The bill was referred to the Committee on Education and Labor but was never considered.

H.Res. 515 is expected to be considered on the floor on July 30, 2007.

Summary

This legislation congratulates the Oregon State University Beavers baseball team for winning the 2007 National Collegiate Athletic Association Division I College World Series Championship for a 2nd consecutive year.

Background

On June 24, 2007, the Oregon State University Beavers baseball team won the 2007 National Collegiate Athletic Association Division I College World Series Championship by defeating the University of North Carolina Tar Heels, 2 games to none, in a best-of-3 championship series.

The 2007 College World Series Championship represents the second National Championship for the Beavers baseball team. This is also the first time in a decade that a team has won back-to-back national titles. They are the only the 5th team to ever accomplish the feat.

The Beavers had 6 players named to the Men's College World Series All-Tournament Team, including pitcher Jorge Reyes, outfielder Scott Santschi, catcher Mitch Canham, second baseman Joey Wong, shortstop Darwin Barney, and designated hitter Mike Lissman.

Cost

At the time of publication the Congressional Budget Office (CBO) had not yet scored this legislation.
